Idaho County Democrats Celebrate with June Picnic June 14, 2004

On Sunday afternoon, June 13, over 90 Idaho County Democrats gathered in sunshine under a large banner and American flags at the Grangeville City Park to celebrate the return of the two-party system to Idaho County. A potluck BBQ feast and pie auction highlighted the event. The audience, hailing from all parts of the county, cheered comments by Commissioner Candidates Jim Rehder and Randy Doman, District 8 State Representative candidate Darcy James, and Sheriff candidate Wayne Sedam, and enjoyed the celebratory banter of other local Democratic leaders. Event chair Maura Willig, assisted by Sharon Jeffery, happily served up the BBQ, while secretary-treasurer Janice Inghram gleefully counted the dollars spent on rhubarb and strawberry, banana crème and huckleberry.

The Idaho County Democrats meet the second Monday of each month at 7:00 p.m. in the Grangeville Senior Citizens Center. Call 983-0616 or 926-7875 for further information.
